Central Jersey Alumnae Chapter (CJA) of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. has been actively engaged and involved in the communities of Union, Middlesex and Somerset Counties since it was chartered in 1975. CJA focuses on youth through mentoring programs and supports academic achievements by awarding scholarships to deserving high school students who demonstrate academic excellence and community involvement. The Scholarship Committee is requesting your help in seeking qualified candidates for our 2023 scholarships. Please share with your African American graduating seniors who reside in Union, Middlesex and Somerset Counties. The scholarship application and criteria can be accessed at https://www.cjadeltas.org/scholarship/. Applications must be received by February 1, 2024. We appreciate your help and support in our efforts to encourage the educational goals of our youth. If you have questions or concerns, please contact us Dr. Wandra Perry-Hartsfield or Dr. Kenyetta Franklin-Jackson at cjascholarship@gmail.com. Thank you. Yours in service to the community, Patricia D. Williamson Patricia D.
